

Dear Mr. Dulles

1960

In offering you my best wishes for Christmas and the New Year, may I entertain the hope that I may have the honor of greeting you in person some day when you are in New York City. I will recede, however, for immediately busy you are & that you may not have time to see me - If one of your secretaries might conveniently let me know when I might send you a letter by safe means would be happy to send you some of those historical autographs which were the subject of my research work at Princeton University many years ago & which are sent by Robby.

With many kind regards, believe me

Ever yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Dulles:

In offering you my best wishes for Christmas and the New Year, may I entertain the hope that I may have the honor of greeting you in person some day when you are in New York City. I well realize, however, how immensely busy you are and that you may not have time to see me. If one of your secretaries might conveniently let me know how I might send you a letter by safe means, I would be happy to send you some of those historical anthographs which were the subject of my research work at Princeton University many years ago and which are still my hobby.

With many kind regards, believe me,

Ever yours sincerely,

/s/ Franklin Gowen
